VISA

Before going to Indonesia check the expiration date of your passport. Your passport must be valid for at least 6 months from the date of entry to Indonesia.

If you come to Bali for 30 days or less you will get a free visa stamp on arrival. The nationals of 169 countries including Russia are eligible for a 30 day free visa. This visa can not be extended.

If you plan to stay in Bali more than 30 Days, up to 60 days you will have to get a visa on arrival (VOA) at the airport. The cost of VOA is 35$. You have to pay for VOA before passing passport control. This visa can be extended once for 30 days at the Immigration Service Office of Indonesia for IDR 355.000.

TRANSFER TO/FROM AIRPORT

We offer a comfortable transfer to/from the airport for a small group of people (up to 4 persons in a car) and large groups (up to 35 people in a bus).

You don't have to worry about transfer, our drivers always come on time and guarantee you a pleasant and safe ride.

MOBILE NETWORK

We advise you not to buy SIM-cards at the airport as they are unreasonably expensive there.

SIM-cards are available in all mobile phone shops. The sellers will help you to chose the best tariff and get connected to the Internet.

You may be asked for a copy of passport in order to register the SIM-card. If there is a problem with registration at the shop you may need to go to the central office of provider to get the card registered.

LOCAL CURRENCY

In Bali as in all other territory of Indonesia the national currency is the Indonesian Rupiah. Rupiah exchange rate is constantly changing, but recently is approaching IDR 14000 per US dollar.

If you just came to Indonesia, count the change carefully. Some banknotes of various denominations look very much alike, it may take time to differentiate them.

WHAT TO DO IN BALI?

Bali is an island with rich cultural and historical heritage. We would like to draw your attention to 5 things that should be seen by every tourist in Bali:

- Take the sightseeing tour to “the heart of Bali”: visit Monkey forest, hidden canyon, waterfalls and coffee plantations. “Kintamani tour” – is one of the most informative and busiest program on the island. You will enjoy the magic of Bali, take incredible photos and keep a lot of bright memories.
- See the birth of a new day from the top of Batur volcano at the height of 1717 meters above sea level! Have breakfast at the top of volcano and slowly go down with a guide admiring the surroundings of local villages. To recover your tired body take a swim in hot springs of Batur lake and have a second hearty breakfast with a view to the lake and Batur volcano.
- If you are willing to see more and get a new experience, climb the volcano of Ijen. At first sight it is an extreme adventure but it is absolutely safe. You will see the glow of blue and turquoise lights in the dark of the night and will witness the miners extracting sulfur by hand. The trip to Ijen will make you see the world in another way.
- Spend two days away from Bali, take a trip to Nusa Penida island. Boost your energy level and get incredible impressions of the might of its giant cliffs. Explore the rich underwater world of Nusa Penida island and take a swim with huge manta rays.
- What could be more interesting than visiting water palaces of Balinese kings, Pura Lempuyang temple above the clouds and a bat cave in Goa Lawah temple? Than revealing the magic of the Island of Gods and its cherished secrets, than discovering the beauty of its holy places and taking a swim in the ocean at one of the most beautiful beaches? Tours to the North and East of Bali will unlock the

- Surfing, diving, rafting and paragliding will help you to experience the unforgettable feeling of freedom, reinvent yourself and let the adrenaline out. Your holidays will be over but your achievements will stay with you forever.

FOOD THAT IS WORTH TRYING IN BALI

Go to Jimbaran beach and treat yourself with fresh seafood and fish. There are a lot of restaurants there that will be pleased to cook for you grilled shrimps, crabs, squids, lobsters and different kinds of fish as per your taste. Try babi guling at local warung restaurants. It is Bali's most famed dish made of sliced pig roasted over a fire. It is served with rice and could be spicy.

TRANSPORT

They drive in Bali on the left hand side of the road. Taxi is the most popular kind of transport among tourists.

The easiest way to get a taxi is to make an order through mobile app:

- BlueBird Taxi is one of the most reliable and popular companies founded in 1972. Beware of fakes. It has a lot of imitators that use the similar style in cars design and names, but they are not very good in terms of quality.
- GrabTaxi can be cheaper than BlueBird. It offers car and bike taxi, courier service, food delivery. Free cancellation is not permitted if the driver is close to pick up area.
- Go-Jek taxi offers a wider range of services: taxi, motortaxi, BlueBird taxi, courier services, food delivery from restaurants and supermarkets, medicine delivery, heavy cargo transportation, massage, hair and nail care, cleaning services, car and scooter (or bike as it is called in Bali) wash.

RENT A VEHICLE

If you do not want to use taxi and would like to rent a car, a motorcycle or a bike, make sure you follow the rules:

- International Driver's License is required while driving in Indonesia. You don't need it to rent a vehicle, but it can be checked by police on the roads;
- Take photos of the vehicle before picking it up. Look for scratches, malfunctions and blemishes;
- Sign a lease agreement or receipt;
- Ask the rental guys about the responsibility in case of theft or accident and find out if the vehicle is insured;
- Make sure you put a helmet on when driving a bike.

INSURANCE

Before leaving on vacation make sure you buy a travel insurance. Medical services in Bali are very expensive.

Keep with you the telephone number of insurance company, a copy of your insurance policy and a contact number of the hospital advised by your insurance provider.

In case of emergency call the insurance company before going to hospital.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCIES

If you were taken to the police station do not sign any documents, ask for the representative of the embassy from your country and conduct all negotiations only in his presence.

In case you lost your passport you have to report the incident to the police, they will file a protocol. One copy of the protocol will be given to you. You will have to take it to your Embassy in Jakarta and get a "certificate for return".

It will replace your passport when you go back home.

SAFETY TIPS

Tourists mean easy money, and easy money attract criminals. Your trip to Bali will be safe if you take simple and reasonable precautions:

- Don't drive a car or a motorbike if you had alcohol;
- Keep your purses and telephones inside the trunks when driving a motorbike. To hold them in hands or over the shoulder is not safe, especially at night;
- Park your vehicle in safe and protected areas;
- Don't leave valuable items in the car's or bike's trunk;
- Don't withdraw money from the ATMs located outside on the streets. Use the ATMs inside the bank offices;
- In case of loss or theft of travel vouchers or credit cards, call your bank immediately to block them;
- When you leave the hotel room put all valuables (laptops, passports, bank cards, money) in a safe;
- While swimming in Bali you can face undercurrents and big waves. Don't swim by yourself, don't overestimate your capacities, read how to act if you get caught in an undercurrent;
- Carry your purse on the side away from the road so the thieves on motorbikes can't snatch it off your shoulder.

Please keep in mind that Bali has its own culture, religion and mentality. Respect Balinese people and don't try to adjust your own life principles on them.
